Inner Diva Singing

Contralto Giulia Utz, BM, MFA, performs in the greater New York metropolitan area as a soloist with ensembles such as the New Brunswick Chamber Orchestra, and also directs a women's chorus at Christ Church New Brunswick that performs women's medieval chant. She has directed performances at the Cloisters museum and produces early baroque music programs. Ms. Utz established Inner Diva Singing to bring to new singers innovative, research-based techniques that quickly bring out a singer's best voice.

The information Ms. Utz teaches is the result of years of performing, and study and practice in music and other disciplines that enhance singing performance. Students learn easy and effective techniques for managing stage fright, building confidence, and managing health conditions that can affect the singing voice. Students of all ages receive very personalized instruction tailored to their goals and musical education level.
